Title III

Case No. 17 BK 3283-LTS

(Jointly Administered)

MCG'S MOTION FOR ALLOWANCE AND PAYMENT OF ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSE CLAIM

TO THE HONORABLE LAURA TAYLOR
SWAIN, UNITED STATES DISTRICT JUDGE:

COMES NOW, MCG and the Able Child ("MCG"), by and through the undersigned legal counsel, and respectfully submits MCG's Motion for Allowance of an Administrative Expense Claim (the "Motion") and very respectfully avers and prays as follows:

I. PRELIMINARY STATEMENT

MCG is entitled to an allowed administrative expense claim under 11 U.S.C. § 503(b)(1)(A) (the "Bankruptcy Code" or the "Code") in the amount of $583,694.00 for services rendered to the Department of Education between February, 2022 to March, 2022 under Contract No. 2022-EE0059, as amended (the "2022 Contract"), related services to be provided to the government and aimed to the special education students. To this date, certain payments have not been made to MCG. Had MCG not provided these services, a significant amount of students within the education system would have been substantially impaired and affected. In this case, MCG has diligently complied with its obligations under the 2022 Contract. Accordingly, MCG should be compensated by the Commonwealth as an administrative expense claim under Section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Code.

II. RELEVANT PROCEDURAL BACKGROUND

1. Pursuant to an order, dated January 18, 2022 [ECF No. 19813] (the “Confirmation Order”), the Modified Eighth Amended Title III Plan of Adjustment of the Commonwealth of Puerto Rico, et al., dated January 14, 2022 [ECF No. 19784] (as amended, supplemented, or modified, the “Plan”), was confirmed by the United States District Court for the District of Puerto Rico (the “Court”).

2. The Effective Date of the Plan occurred on March 15, 2022 and the Plan was substantially consummated. [ECF No. 20349]

3. Pursuant to Section 1.51 and Article III of the Plan and decretal paragraph 44 of the Confirmation Order, the deadline for filing proofs of or requests for payment of Administrative Expense Claims (“Administrative Expense Requests”) is June 13, 2022; provided, however, that no proof of Administrative Expense Claim shall be required to be filed if such Administrative Expense Claim (a) shall have been incurred (i) in accordance with an order of the Court or (ii) with the written consent of the applicable Government Parties expressly granting such Administrative Expense Claim, (b) is a Professional Claim, (c) is an intergovernmental Claim, (d) is an Administrative Expense Claim of the IRS for the payment of taxes incurred by any of the Debtors during the period from and after the Commonwealth

Petition Date, the ERS Petition Date or the PBA Petition Date, as applicable, (e) relates to actions occurring in the ordinary course during the period from and after the respective Debtor's petition date up to and including the Effective Date, (f) relates to a Claim that is subject to the provisions of the ACR Order, including, without limitation, "grievance claims" relating to any of the Debtor's collective bargaining agreements, or (g) is the subject of a pending motion seeking allowance of any administrative expense pursuant to Bankruptcy Code section 503(b) as of the entry of the Confirmation Order; and, provided, further, that any such proof of Administrative Expense Claim by a governmental unit shall remain subject to the rights and interests of the Debtors and Reorganized Debtors, as the case may be, and any other party in interest to interpose an objection or other defense to the allowance or payment thereof.

III. FACTUAL BACKGROUND AND PLAN PROVISIONS

4. On December 1, 2021, MCG subscribed an executory contract (2022 Contract), with the Department of Education, by which MCG would provide specialized services from January 3, 2022 through June 30, 2022 to the government and aimed to the special education students. EXHIBIT 1 & EXHIBIT 2.

5. These services are made by and through specific federal and local statutes, among them, Act No. 51 of 7 of June 1996, as amended, the Comprehensive Educational Services for Persons with Disabilities Act and Federal Law No. 108446 and the renown Rosa Lydia Vélez case.

6. The 2022 Contract, as amended,, is dully registerd with the has been registered with the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico. (<https://consultacontratos.ocpr.gov.pr/>)

7. Being properly registered with the Comptroller of Puerto Rico, the 2022 Contract is an assumed executory contract per the terms of Section 76.1 of the confirmed plan.²

8. To this date, the Commonwealth, owes amounts to MCG which fall within the timeframe and definition of administrative expenses.

9. Specifically, MCG is owed payment in the amount of $583,694.00 for services rendered to the Department of Education between February, 2022 to March, 2022 under Contract No. 2022-EE0059 related services to be provided to the government and aimed to the special education students. EXHIBIT 3.

10. MCG has diligently complied with its obligations under the 2022 Contract.

11. Accordingly, MCG should be compensated by the Commonwealth as an administrative expense claim under Section 503(b)(1)(A) of the Code.

IV. MCG IS ENTITLED TO PAYMENT OF THESE AMOUNTS AS ADMINISTRATIVE EXPENSES

12. In addition to falling within the timeframe specified in the plan to be entitled to an administrative claim, the same are necessary costs and expenses of the debtor and the estate performed on its ordinary course.

13. Bankruptcy Code section 503(b)(1)(A), applicable to this case under Section 301 of PROMESA, 48 U.S.C. § 2161, provides that “[a]fter notice and a hearing, there shall be allowed administrative expenses . . . including . . . the actual, necessary costs and expenses of preserving the estate.” See In re Hemingway Transp., Inc., 954 F.2d 1, 5 (1st Cir. 1991).

14. The own representations of the by the Commonwealth through the Department of ² 76.1 Rejection or Assumption of Remaining Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases: Pursuant to sections 365(b)(2) of the Bankruptcy Code, applicable to the Title III Case pursuant to Section 301 of PROMESA, and subject to the provisions of Section 76.5 and 76.7 hereof, all Executory Contracts and Unexpired Leases that exist between the Debtors and any Entity, and which have not expired by their own terms on or prior to the Effective Date, shall be rejected by the Debtors as of the Effective Date, except for any Executory Contract and Unexpired Lease (a) that has been assumed and assigned or rejected pursuant to an order of the Title III Court entered prior to the Effective Date, (b) that is specifically designated as a contract or lease to be assumed on the schedules to the Plan Supplement, (c) that has been registered with the Office of the Comptroller of Puerto Rico...

Education when seeking these services, highlight the public policy and the importance of the same:

"Article II, Section 1 of the Constitution of the Commonwealth establishes that "the dignity of the human being is inviolable and that all human beings are equal before the law." Furthermore, Section V provides that "[e]very person has the right to an education that encourages the full development of their personality and the strengthening respect for human rights and fundamental freedoms. "Likewise, the Department of Education channels these constitutional guarantees through its Organic Law, Law 85-2018, as amended, better known as the Puerto Rico Educational Reform Law." As a mission of the Department of Education, a free education is guaranteed, which develops the capacity and skills of students for their performance as independent citizens, capable of contributing to the common welfare. This is why, with the creation of the Associated Secretary for Special Education of the Department of Education, the offering of educational and related services to students with disabilities between three (3) and twenty-one (21) years old is possible, in accordance with the federal legislation Individuals with Disabilities Education Act, 2 as amended. IDEA ensures compliance with the unique needs of children with disabilities... It is the reiterated policy of the Government of Puerto Rico to provide services to students of the public education system with special needs." EXHIBIT 4.

"The Associate Secretary for Special Education (SAEE) of the Department of Education is committed to providing educational services and related to special education students in accordance with the eligibility criteria established in Act No. 51 of 7 of June 1996, as amended, the Comprehensive Educational Services for Persons with Disabilities Act and Federal Law No. 108446, Individuals with Disabilities Education Improvement Act. In accordance with its purposes, formal proposals are requested aimed at offering: a) educational services; b) educational services and related therapeutic intervention services; c) related assessment services initial and triennial; d) related therapeutic intervention services and additional evaluations and reevaluations; to children and youth between the ages of three (3) up to and including twenty-one (21), during the 2019-2020 fiscal year. The entities or individuals that will be contracted to offer educational services and / or evaluation and therapy services must provide interventions or therapy services focused on the educational environment in the areas of psychology, speech language, occupational and physical with the purpose of supporting the educational goals established in the Individualized Education Program, based on individual needs of the student and by prior authorization of the SAEE or the authorized official. These services will be offered to students of the Special Education Program, referred through the Associate Secretary of Special Education or its authorized representative. Entities eligible to submit proposals can be for-profit and non-profit entities that demonstrate integrity, commitment, experience and compliance with public policy and previous executions, as well as technical and financial resources." EXHIBIT 5.

15. Section 1.52 of the confirmed plan, as supplemented, asserts that administrative claims accumulate up to the effective date to wit, March 15, 2022.

16. Section 3.1 of the confirmed plan, as supplemented, asserts that “[o]n the later to occur of (a) the Effective Date and (b) the date on which an Administrative Expense Claim shall become an Allowed Claim, the Reorganized Debtors shall (i) pay to each holder of an Allowed Administrative Expense Claim, in Cash, the full amount of such Administrative Expense Claim”. [ECF No. 19784]

WHEREFORE, MCG respectfully requests that this Court ALLOW the administrative claim itemized herein in their entirety and in the amount of of $583,694.00, and order the payment of the same as provided for in the confirmed Plan of Adjustment, with any other appropriate relief in favor of movant herein.

WE HEREBY CERTIFY that on this same date, we electronically filed the foregoing with the Clerk of the Court using the CM/ECF system, which will send notification of such filing to all CM/ECF participants in this case. We further certify that, on this same date, we served the foregoing upon all the Standard Parties as identified and defined in the Court’s Sixteenth Amended Notice, Case Management and Administrative Procedures Order [Dkt. No. 20190-1] (the “CMP Case:17-03283-LTS Doc#:21187 Filed:06/11/22 Entered:06/11/22 11:28:24 Desc: Main Document Page 7 of 8 8 Order”), as well as upon all of the parties identified in the Master Service List maintained at <https://cases.primeclerk.com/puertorico/>.
